

Woodbury University's Complaint Resolution Process

Woodbury University takes complaints and concerns regarding the institution seriously. Woodbury is committed to ensuring that all student complaints are resolved using a clear, fair and reliable process. The University treats complaints seriously and ensures all processes are clear, prompt, confidential and fair to all parties. If a student has a complaint regarding the University or one of its schools, the student may present said complaint or grievance according to the applicable policies and procedures found in the Woodbury University Catalog and summarized below.

University Complaint Policies and Procedures

Academic Complaints

University policy on academic grievances is outlined within the University Catalog under " Academic Grievance " omission, as they are presented in the Catalog.

All members of the University community, even those who are not obligated by this policy, are strongly encouraged to report information regarding any incident of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Title IX Coordinator: Naira Zakarian, Senior Director, Human Resources

Hensel Hall

818.252.5110

naira.zakarian@woodbury.edu

Veteran Affairs Complaints

If you believe you have been discriminated or retaliated against on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age, you may file a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights at the following link: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/complaintintro.html>

State-by-State Consumer Protection Agencies

Students who live in a state other than California may also contact their State Consumer Protection

If you are currently enrolled, or anticipate enrollment, in an educational program that requires State agency or board authorization and/or licensure and do not see it listed here, please contact the Office of Academic Affairs at AcademicAffairs@woodbury.edu for further information.